Michael,

A rough budget number for a tear off and new slate roof would be $ 120,000.00.

Hi Stephanie,

I forgot to mention that only the main roof of my house is slate. The back porch roof (in black in the aerial photo you sent) is not, nor is the front porch. I'm just looking to replace the old slate portion. See attached image.

Thanks,

Michael

Subject: Slate Roof Replacement

Message Body:

Hello,

I own a home with a slate roof in the Hubbard Farms historic district in southwest Detroit. Unfortunately, much of the roof is extremely old and in disrepair, despite numerous fixes since I purchased the home a few years ago.

I am looking to get a quote for a full slate roof replacement. Please email me back or call me at (313) 452-0264 at your convenience.

Thank you,

Michael Webb
