One-Over-One Window Details. The yellow indicates trim molding between the brickmould and window and the green indicated the portion of the window frame that is visible.

Detail of brickmould and location of window and sash in opening.

Detail of framing on all decorative windows. This specific section shows the glazing dimensions for the small window over the ramp, however the other windows have similar trim proportions. All trim will be replicated as existing with missing portions being added to the systems.