

These are the details for the existing windows. What are the corresponding dimensions for the new windows at the following locations? Also please provide the dimensions of the height of the panes of glass at both the first and second stories for both the existing and new windows. At this point you do not need to revise the drawings. You can instead provide this info narratively in an email.