Hi Jennifer,

Hope all is well. I am writing in support of Akosua Barthwell Evans, an esteemed member of our community, an accomplished lawyer and businesswoman, and the founder of our block club in Boston-Edison (Rosa Park to 14th Street).

As I understand, a neighbor has complained about the lighting around her two homes. I strongly believe the lighting is totally appropriate given the beauty of her two homes, and more importantly, the need for security in our neighborhood. I have been a homeowner in Boston-Edison since 1994 (2080 W. Boston), my first home. I've seen a lot since that time, and when you have a senior member of our community who lives in her home and takes care of it beautifully, we should be supporting her.

I myself feel scared coming home some nights, especially in the warmer months. I can only imagine what a senior and female member of our block would feel like coming home at night. In addition, many other neighbors among the 930 homes in Boston-Edison have similar lighting.

If you have any questions, feel free to email me back.

Thank you,
RJ
